Handel Italian Cantatas volume 6: Olinto pastore Invernizzi; Fernández; Basso; La Risonanza / Bonizzoni GCD 921526 £15.99 £10.99

Following the great success of the five previous discs in this series (three of which have become a Gramophone editor's choice) the latest volume features three works dedicated to Handel's Roman patron Count Francesco Ruspoli. Olinto, pastor Arcade, a substantial serenata for two sopranos and alto, praises not only Ruspoli but also the pope. The music allocated to Olinto, sung here by soprano Roberta Invernizzi, passes from pastoral to heroic; in her final aria the trumpet erupts into the string orchestra, and soars triumphantly in the brief closing trio. Part of the fun involved in listening to these discs is spotting the music that Handel chose to re-use in various later stage works; in this case many movements are found in Alcina. The shorter cantata Duello Amorososo, a setting of a witty pastoral text, is set for soprano and alto voices combined. Here, the darker soprano tone of Yetzabel Arias Fernández (think Andreas Scholl up an octave!) offsets the steady tone of Romina Basso's alto, whose voice could be mistaken for that of a male alto.
